

This is a brief introduction to ZMAG Zoom MailArt Group, a respectful mini-community of Mail Artists who enjoy using Zoom to round out our connection to each other. We are loosely organized, with few rules & regulations. Participation in group projects or volunteering to coordinate between meetings is optional. We meet monthly, usually on the third Wednesday evening at 7:30 PM (Eastern Time, U.S.) to share new projects, present techniques or historical perspectives, and to discuss issues related to Mail Art. We use email to keep things moving for the group between group meetings.

We welcome guest speakers to join us and share their perspectives, skills and mail art knowledge. The key to all this is keeping the joy of Mail Art alive, free flowing and positive.

If you want to know more, we will provide a short Herstory of our group in digital or hard copy form. We do accept new members, one or two at a time, as room permits. To enable free-flowing discussion we are committed to preserving our Zoom group size to about 20 members. We also accept observers, by prior arrangement with The Sticker Dude, Joel, our Zoom host.

Our fledgling Website: zmagmailartistgroup.com is now up and running along with an email address.

We also now have a snail mail address: ZMAG PO Box 303 Merrifield VA 22116 USA

Feel free to send us your mail art work work, MailArt Calls, or your publications concerning Mail Art. Depending on the volume of mail and volunteer responders, your correspondence will be answered as best as we can. Individual opinions expressed by the responder may not represent the group as a whole.

If you want to be added to our email list contact: info@zmagmailartistsgroup.com

If you are interested in presenting a MailArt topic to our Zoom meeting, or joining, contact The Sticker Dude, Joel Cohen: info@zmagmailartistsgroup.com

John Held, Jr., an active mail artist and mailart historian has stated that ZMAG is the first Zoom MailArt Group of its kind. Frankly, we hope that our group can inspire others around the world.

Sincerely,

ZMAG Outreach Group - 2022
