Mail Art Call to All Artistamp Makers

Contemporary Artistamp Artists Volume 2

Over 140 artists sent work for Vol. 1 and the feedback I received was filled with excitement and an eagerness to participate in another issue. So here we go!

The Contemporary Artistamp Artists Volume 2 catalog will be made through the self-publishing site BLURB and be available to purchase by anyone for the same price that I will pay for it. I DO NOT SEE ANY PROFIT FROM THIS PROJECT. A free pdf of the book will be made available through Facebook or through email to anyone who requests it. The cost of the book will be determined by the number of people who participate (based on the number of pages). Over 140 Artists participated in Volume 1 and the cost of the book ended up being $35 before shipping and without any discounts. BLURB does do a bunch of discount/promotional stuff and there is a possibility that you could purchase the book cheaper.

Send 1 sheet of Artistamps to:

Adam Roussopoulos

Deadline to participate: November 1st, 2025

PLEASE NOTE: By mailing a submission for this project you are giving me the OK to include your work in a published book. (Once again, I do not receive PROFITS from this project)

My Hope is that I can get as many current Artistamp makers included in this project. There are so many people who are doing amazing work in the Artistamp medium, and I would love them all to be showcased into one collection. Something published and available for anyone for a reasonable cost. I'll put in the work of making the book, all you have to do is send me your amazing Artistamps!

Decades of Mailing It In

Friday - Sunday October 10-12, 2025

Squirrel Haus, 3450 Snelling, Mpls. www.squirrelhausarts.com

Musicmaster (aka Thomas M. Cassidy) is putting together a madness-infused exhibition of 1000+ pieces of Mail-Art called Decades of Mailing It In, Fri.-Sun. October 10-12, at Squirrel Haus, 3450 Snelling, Mpls. This trail mix of letters, cards, hi-jinx, zines, collaborations, and para-punk debris is from 40,000+ pieces of mail-art yakked up by his mailbox since 1972. It's also a "retrospective" gone correctly awry because 99% of the works aren't by Musicmaster, but are instead pieces sent to him. There will also be a display of mail-art sent just for this event, mail-zines, artistamps, projects guests can add to, freebies, Fluxus fallout, local mail-artists in person (not just in envelopes anymore), and audio/video enhancements from beyond.

The opening reception starts on Friday at 3:00 p.m. with a short overview and mini Q&A interventions between viewers and artworks. Local spoken word all-stars and troubadours will be featured in the performance space in shows both Friday and Saturday starting at 7 p.m. Gallery opens 1:00 p.m. Saturday.

Starting 1:00 p.m. Sunday there will be performances, readings, collaborations and more (I'm not kidding) by Greet-O-Matic, Adam Roussopoulos, Hamil Griffin-Cassidy, Doug Green, Ted King, Wayne Nelsen, special guests John M. and C. Mehrl Bennett of Luna Bisonte Prods, Columbus, OH.

Stay tuned! This will be an active swirling celebration of Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Press, Freedom of Belief System, Freedom of Art, Freedom of Comedy, Freedom of the Absurd, Freedom of Movement, Freedom to Assemble, Freedom to Connect and Freedom to Stay Tuned for Spoken Word All Star Line-Ups!

Questions? Email internalrhyme@outlook.com or message Thomas Cassidy on Facebook

Squirrel Haus Arts is a creative incubator, community gathering space, performance venue, workshop and art gallery in South Minneapolis. Since 2015 Squirrel Haus Arts has evolved into a vibrant space with frequent national and local gallery shows, theatrical company rehearsals, set building, pop-up shows, experimental projects, plus non-profit and community events.
www.squirrelhausarts.com

Works displayed will include pieces by mail-artists Private World, Jerry Dreva, Scott Helmes, Anna Banana, Ray Johnson, Dr. Al "Blaster" Ackerman, Lon Spiegelman, Rhoda Mappo, Uncle Don Orworks, Pat Fish, Greet-O-Matic, Lord Fugue, Sticker Dude, Carol Stetser, Ace Space Co., Lowell Darling, Russell Butler, Duplex Planet, PhotoStatic, Subwaxin Haddock, Ficus, Creative Thing and many (well, 1000+) more.

Lopilot explains: Musicmaster has been actively involved in correspondence art since the early 1970s. His work spans visual poetry, collage, and performance, and he's contributed to numerous mail art archives and exhibitions, including OSU's Rare Books and Manuscripts Library, Lomholt Mail Art Archive and the Minnesota Center for Book Arts.

Musicmaster stands out for his fusion of visual poetry, surreal collage, and performative absurdity, which sets him apart from many of his contemporaries. His work also reflects the influence of beat poetry, good beer, Pinocchio, Bob Orben, the 17A outbound, vintage board games, carnivals, Lemurian yo-yo-yos, pickpockets, poker, recycled smithereens, pro wrestling heels, and semi-living theater. His chapbooks and stand-up poetry performances often mirror the spontaneity and irreverence of mail art itself
