MAIL ART, RAGGED EDGE PRESS, AND SOCIAL CHANGE:

A CONVERSATION WITH JOEL COHEN (A.K.A. "THE STICKER DUDE")

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30 | ENGLISH READING ROOM
3-4:30 PM | 127 FENTON HALL

Joel Cohen, cofounder of Ragged Edge Press, has been collaboratively creating art and social change for more than twenty-five years. A graphic artist, poet, printer, editor, mail art innovator, and musical performer, Cohen began creating progressive political art in response to the counter-culture movements of the 1960s and 1970s. From limited edition printings of essays to bumper stickers and first-day cover pieces, Cohen has worked with a variety of like-minded artists, including the internationally renowned author Kurt Vonnegut, folk singer and activist Pete Seeger, and award-winning editorial illustrator Thomas Kerr.

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, AND IS SPONSORED BY THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT AND THE MARY LOUISE WHITE FUND. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT CHRISTINA JARVIS AT JARVIS@FREDONIA.EDU. FREDONIA

Hi Ed, and thanks for the mail art packets from January 9th and 14th. I really like the "Footloose" ATCs!

I hope that you like these "grid" ATCs.
I still owe you four ATCs (plus a card or two), so you'll be hearing from me in a week or so.

Cheers, Fleur
